

8. Student Learning Outcome #1

Please enter student learning outcome #1 for your program, department, or unit.

See examples in # 20 below.*

9. Student Learning Outcome #1

Describe how student learning outcome #1 will be measured. What is the desired level of success (benchmark)? See examples in # 21 below.*

Describe how student learning outcome #1 will be measured. What is the desired level of success (benchmark)? See examples in # 21 below.*

10. Student Learning Outcome #2

See examples in # 20 below.*

11. Student Learning Outcome #2

Describe how student learning outcome #2 will be measured. What is the desired level of success? See examples in # 21 below.*

12. Student Learning Outcome #3

Please enter student learning outcome #3 for your program, department, or unit.

See examples in # 20 below.*

13. Student Learning Outcome #3

Describe how student learning outcome #3 will be measured. What is the desired level of success? See examples in # 21 below.*

13. Measures for Student Learning Outcome #3

20. Examples of Student Learning Outcomes and evaluating economic, social, and issues.

patients with special needs, complex medical conditions, and financial barriers, including

No Response Needed!

21. Examples of Measures of Student Learning Outcomes and Benchmarks life assessed using a capstone project that is graded by security. (A) Honors graduates of this program

The benchmark for success is to have all students earn a minimum grade of B in each rubric dimension area.
Using a standardized departmental rubric equivalent score of at least 80%.

and minors are assessed using a portfolio that is scored using the following rubric:
2) Graduating English majors and minors are assessed using a portfolio that is scored using the following rubric:
department's portfolio scoring system.

students are assessed during their daily clinical sessions using the Advanced General Dentistry Rubric.

Link to this document:

https://forms.office.com/Pages/ResponsePage.aspx?id=2MKkyGi9ukC4tnUivppxcTGXbjcY4DVBizY_OJwdSk5UOU5IVIJWFJJOUo4SkhLWDdQRUIIVUIRVS4u